History of Burr Residential Properties

Our firm was founded in 1968 by Peter Burr, a former IBM executive. We have always specialized in the sale of houses in Northwest Washington and close-in Montgomery County. In March of 2013, Burr Residential Properties was acquired by TTR Sotheby's International Realty.

“Joining with TTR Sotheby’s International Realty offers us a unique opportunity. Its worldwide reach and extensive marketing platform will allow us to serve our clients even better,” said Burr. “We strive to stay at the forefront of real estate for our clients, utilizing only the best resources for research and analysis. We strongly believe that the Sotheby’s brand will further distinguish us in the Washington real estate market. Sotheby’s International Realty affiliates are the gold standard of real estate worldwide.”

The Sotheby’s International Realty network currently has more than 12,100 sales associates located in approximately 620 offices in 45 countries and territories worldwide. TTR Sotheby’s International Realty has been the exclusive affiliate for the Washington, DC metropolitan area since 2006. The 24 year-old firm currently has over 200 agents with offices in Georgetown, DC; Downtown, DC; McLean, VA and Chevy Chase, MD.

While overseeing the sale of several hundred million dollars of real estate and encountering every imaginable type of contract, The Corey Burr Group has retained its most important assets: personalized service, unbeatable representation, and total dedication to seeing a job done well from listing to final settlement.
