

January Existing Home Sales Increased Nationally

by Laura - 02-25-2011

<http://coreyburr.com/january-existing-home-sales-increased-nationally/>

January saw a continuation of the early stages of stabilization in the existing-home market. While prices are down an average of 2.6%, the pace of sales increased by 2.7%. In order to have a sustained upswing, the market needs to have a large increase in activity in the months ahead prior to any sustained price increase.

Read the full article from Brian Wesbury and Robert Stein here.
