Principal Corey Burr joins the region's fastest growing luxury real estate brokerage.

Mark Lowham, Managing Partner of TTR Sotheby's International Realty, today announced that the firm has acquired the sales division of Burr Residential Properties, the venerable, 45-year old real estate brokerage in Chevy Chase, Maryland.

Corey Burr will join TTR Sotheby's International Realty as a Senior Vice President. Burr and his associates will work from TTR Sotheby's International Realty's Chevy Chase office at 5454 Wisconsin Avenue.

"Corey Burr is a leader in our industry. He is widely recognized for his integrity, expertise, and ability to produce great outcomes for clients, all of which align with our core values at TTR Sotheby's International Realty. We are very proud to welcome Corey and his agents to the firm, and we look forward to working with them," said Lowham.

Founded as Burr, Morris & Pardoe in 1968 by Peter S. Burr, William R. Morris, Jr. and Charles E. Pardoe, Burr Residential Properties is recognized as one of the longest-standing, family-owned brokerage firms in the region. The firm has developed a loyal clientele, particularly in the close-in markets of Chevy Chase, Bethesda and Northwest Washington. Peter Burr made his first sale in 1968 to a freshman Representative from Texas and his wife, George and Barbara Bush, and the firm has helped many hundreds in the Washington area buy and sell their houses since.

"Joining with TTR Sotheby's International Realty offers us a unique opportunity. Its worldwide reach and extensive marketing platform will allow us to serve our clients even better," said Burr. "We strive to stay at the forefront of real estate for our clients, utilizing only the best resources for research and analysis. We strongly believe that the Sotheby's brand will further distinguish us in the Washington real estate market. Sotheby's International Realty affiliates are the gold standard of real estate worldwide."

The Sotheby's International Realty network currently has more than 12,100 sales associates located in approximately 620 offices in 45 countries and territories worldwide. TTR Sotheby's International Realty has been the exclusive affiliate for the
