Stephanie is a member of TTR Sotheby's International Realty's Chevy Chase office, and is partnering with Corey Burr, one of the most respected and results oriented associate brokers in the Washington, DC region, with over 30 years' of experience in real estate. Stephanie brings her passion, enthusiasm and full range of marketing and sales talents to her real estate practice.

After graduating from the University of Maryland, Stephanie began her career in client services and business development with financial and community development firms. Understanding buyer and seller needs and working closely with clients to maximize the enjoyment of the relationship, as well as the financial results of the transaction, are of utmost importance to her.

As a native Washingtonian, Stephanie appreciates what the city has to offer, and she has worked tirelessly in her community. Since 2005, she has been an integral part of the Greg Gannon Canned Food Drive, an annual event which provides food to over 70 homeless shelters and food pantries throughout the year. Since 2012, Stephanie has served as one of two co-directors of the project, and she coordinates hundreds of volunteers and families in DC, Maryland and Virginia to ensure that as much food as possible is collected for those in need. In 2016, over 151,000 cans of food were donated to the cause!

Stephanie lives in Chevy Chase, DC with her husband and two children, and she enjoys museums, hiking, playing golf and travelling with her family. Stephanie looks forward to working with you on your next real estate need.
